CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS: The state Rosenthal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act require that, except under unusual circumstances, collectors may not contact you before 8 a.m. or after 9 p.m. They may not harass you by using threats of violence or arrest or by using obscene language. Collectors may not use false or misleading statements or call you at work if they know or have reason to know that you may not receive personal calls at work. For the most part, collectors may not tell another person, other than your attorney or spouse, about your debt. Collectors may contact another person to confirm your location or enforce a judgment.

For more information about debt collection activities, you may contact the Federal Trade Commission at 1-877-FTC-HELP or www.ftc.gov

COLORADO RESIDENTS: A consumer has the right to request in writing that a debt collector or collection agency cease further communication with the consumer. A written request to cease communication will not prohibit the debt collector or collection agency from taking any other action authorized by law to collect the debt.

Local Colorado Office: 3605 Mead Street, Fort Collins, CO 80526 Tele: (970) 226-1386.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CAN BE FOUND ON THE NEXT PAGE

New York Residents:

Debt collectors, in accordance with the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq., are prohibited from engaging in abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection efforts, including but not limited to:

- a) the use or threat of violence;
- b) the use of obscene or profane language; and
- c) repeated phone calls made with the intent to annoy, abuse, or harass

If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt:

1. Supplemental security income, (SSI);
2. Social security;
3. Public assistance (welfare);
4. Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support;
5. Unemployment benefits;
6. Disability benefits;
7. Workers' compensation benefits;
8. Public or private pensions;
9. Veterans' benefits;
10. Federal student loans, federal student grants, and federal work study funds; and
11. Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days.

Notification of Right to Request Substantiation

If you wish to request substantiation of the debt, you may make a request for substantiation by notifying Coast Professional, Inc. in writing to: Coast Professional, Inc., P.O. Box 2027 West Monroe, LA 71294, indicating you are requesting substantiation of the debt. Please identify your name and account number clearly in the correspondence. Once a debt collector such as Coast Professional, Inc. receives a written request for substantiation, the debt collector must cease collection of the debt until substantiation has been provided to the consumer. Substantiation must be provided within 60 days of receiving the request. A debt collector must substantiate a debt pursuant to this section only once during the period that the debt collector owns or has the right to collect the debt. Unlike the 30 day validation period under the FDCPA, there is no specific time limit outlined in the regulations during which a consumer must request substantiation.
