What you need to do immediately

If you agree with the amount due and you're not working with an IRS representative

- Pay the amount due of $2,106.05 immediately or we may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, the amount of interest will increase, and additional penalties may apply.
- Pay online or by phone or mail a check or money order with the attached payment stub. You can pay online now at www.eftps.gov.
- When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

If you disagree with the amount due

Call us at 800-829-0115 to review your account with a representative. Be sure to have your account information available when you call.

We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.

Right to request an appeal

If you don't agree with our intent to levy or file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, you have the right to request an appeal under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP) before the collection action takes place. Please call 800-829-0115 or send us a Collection Appeal Request (Form 9423) to the address at the top of the notice within 30 days from the date of this notice. Note: The (CAP) is different from the Collection Due Process (CDP) Program. Please call 800-829-0115 if you have questions about either of these programs. For more information about your appeal rights, see Publication 1660 (Collection Appeal Rights).

Denial or revocation of United States passport

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing a seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt.

Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $54,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted, or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $54,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside of the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at www.irs.gov/passports.

Payment options

Pay online or by phone using the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). Enroll at IRS.gov/eftps. Once enrolled, you can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/payments first. If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Apply for a payment plan (installment agreement) at IRS.gov/OPA
- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/tempcollectiondelay

If we don't hear from you

If you have not paid the debt already, a federal tax lien has arisen as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors and we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The NFTL may also appear on your credit report.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest when you do not pay your liability on time. Generally, we calculate interest from the due date of your return (regardless of extensions) until you pay the amount you owe in full, including accrued interest and any penalty charges. Interest on some penalties accrues from the date we notify you of the penalty until it is paid in full. Interest on other penalties, such as failure to file a tax return, starts from the due date or extended due date of the return. Interest rates are variable and may change quarterly. (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

Description	Amount

The table below shows the rates used to calculate the interest on your unpaid amount due. For a detailed calculation of your interest, call 800-829-0115.
